TRANSPORTATION COUNCIL, Tuesday, April 17, 7:30 p.m.

The Queens Civic Congress [QCC] and the New York Metropolitan Transportation Council holds a public forum on Transportation in Southeast Queens, 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 17, 2001, at the Allen AME Cathedral, 111-54 Merrick Boulevard in Jamaica, announced QCC president Sean M. Walsh.

QCC Transportation Committee Chairs John Liu and Tina Chan, also QCC Vice Presidents, will moderate the meeting.

“Our nearly 100 Queens civic organizations maintain a strong interest in improving transportation, especially in underserved communities” said Executive Vice President Patricia Dolan.

“The Queens Civic Congress membership represents almost every community in the borough” noted Executive Vice President Corey Bearak, who oversees legislative and public affairs and related matters for the Congress. “The Queens Civic Congress Online, its website, www.queensciviccongress.org, provides information on upcoming events, the civic congress platform and resource links to government, non-profit and community organizations.”
