New York, NY 10007

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of Queens Civic Congress, I write to oppose any real property tax gouge and propose a sound and practical alternative. Your administration can make a real difference by reforming the real property tax system to re-introduce equity and fairness into the system as proposed by Queens Civic Congress. Hiking property taxes across the board – makes no sense.

Queens Civic Congress – in testimonies, statements, other advocacy and, most recently, our “REAL Property Tax Reform” forum – advocates an improvement that bring equity, fairness and transparency to the City's antiquated, inequitable and unfair real estate tax regime AND nets the City some five billion dollars – yes, $5,000,000,000, without gouging middle and working class homeowners, businesses and tenants. CIVIC2030 includes this and other Queens Civic Congress reforms.

Queens Civic Congress advocates most of the net revenues, not for the city the embark on a spending spree, but to help it strategically reform its tax system, address long-term borrowing issues and re-structure its out of whack budget. Clearly, this sound reform also covers the need to address core services for our needy.

It remains clear from much can be done to raise revenue and at the same time give the middle and working class (homeowners and tenants) a break. City assessment practices that unfairly benefit the wealthiest New Yorkers and luxury homes and apartments require change. Queens Civic Congress will continue its conversation with the City Assessors (and Appraisers) Local 1757 and concerned state and city electeds to reform a system that so unfairly treats those who struggle to get by each day. For more details, click here. Instead of taxing New Yorkers, many of them struggling in tough economic times, implement the Queens Civic Congress REAL Property Tax Reform.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Corey Bearak

Corey B. Bearak
President
