Hon. Michael Bloomberg
Mayor
City Hall
New York, NY 10007

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The Queens Civic Congress is a coalition of more than 100 community and neighborhood based organizations that work on behalf of Queens' two million residents, at least 350,000 of whom are over 65.

We are writing to you out of concern for the threatened cuts in federal, state and city funding for senior services. In these economically challenging times, when the cost of living is soaring, thousands of Queens seniors are relying more every day on community based senior programs and support.

At a time when the cost of food, fuel, transportation and housing are rising, cutting funds for services to the most vulnerable among us is not a thoughtful response to economic conditions. It is rather an expression of a heartless lack of concern and respect for the New Yorkers who have given so much to their city and country.

The Queens Civic Congress is troubled that that services for seniors like community based centers, home delivered meals, case management and transportation are regarded as first on the list of targets for the bean counters in your administration. Coming on the heels of the Department for the Aging's decision to centralize services for seniors in the face of unanimous expert opinion that stresses community based services for older Americans, these draconian budget cuts are indefensible.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Corey Bearak
