QUEENS CIVICS CONVENE ON COMM. BOARDS & D.O.B., SEPT. 18

The Queens Civic Congress [QCC] holds a general membership meeting to focus on Community Boards and the Department of Buildings, Monday, September 18, 7:30 p.m., at the Queens County Farm Museum, 73-50 Little Neck Parkway in Bellerose, announced President Sean M. Walsh.

The agenda according to QCC Executive Vice President for Planning includes:

- *Community Boards: Are They Effective? Who Controls The Appointments?
- *DOB (Department of Buildings): What Are We To Do?
- *Urban Parks Legislation
- *Nomination Committee
- *QCC Foundation grants procedures”

“The Queens Civic Congress affords civic leaders from across the Borough to meet and share concerns in an informal non-meeting atmosphere, meet key leaders from the other boroughs and chat with elected officials,” said Corey Bearak, QCC Executive Vice President for Public Affairs. “As an umbrella group of 100 civic organizations, the Queens Civic Congress membership represents almost every community in the borough.”
