Hon. Michael Bloomberg
Mayor
City Hall
New York, NY 10007

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the Queens Civic Congress, I write concerning your comments in your 2008 State of the City address that you plan to “appoint a new Charter Revision Commission that will conduct a top-to-bottom review of City government over the next 18 months.” The Queens Civic Congress, as the voice of the civic and other condo, cooperative, tenant and other community organizations in our borough, respectfully recommends that you consider the appointment of one of our key leaders to the commission; among these leaders are our past president Sean M. Walsh, Esq., our Executive Vice President Patricia Dolan, and the undersigned who serves as the current President. Any of us would provide not only expertise but important perspectives that belong in any discussion of government reform through Charter Revision. Most borough residents believe the last Charter Revision ill-served Queens; we’re not standing still for a repeat.

The Queens Civic Congress also welcomes the notion that you will “consider any proposal that will improve the life of New York and New Yorkers.” The current Queens Civic Congress platform, CIVIC 2030, includes many items appropriate for implementation through Charter Revision. Though my predecessor mailed CIVIC 2030 to you last summer, the Queens Civic Congress again urges that you and your administration review to review and comment.

Thank you for your attention to this Queens Civic Congress request.

Sincerely,

Corey Bearak

Corey Bearak
President
