QUEENS CIVICS CONGRESS RATINGS PLAN PUTS POLS ON NOTICE Five Unispheres to Candidates Who Support Core Issues of CIVIC 2030 That INCLUDES Opposing the Congestion Tax

Queens Civic Congress puts all elected officials and would be ones on notice that the communities are closely following what people say and how they will vote. The Civic community expect the City Council to vote a strong thumbs down to the congestion tax." stated Jim Trent, Transportation Chair for the Queens Civic Congress, a the borough-wide coalition of civic and condo, cooperative, tenant and other community organizations. "Anyone who supports the unfair tax and/ or votes for it stands to lose any chance of being 'awarded' the coveted five unispheres rating; it could costs them as they look ahead to the next election.

Queens Civic Congress first announced this public information initiative two weeks ago today at City Hall, stating: "Queens Civic Congress believes that the public ought to know where candidates stand on key issues of concern and they may make their decisions on which candidates to support and vote for with full knowledge of candidates positions on core issues."
