QUEENS CIVICS CONGRESS RALLIES WITH JA. ESTATES AGAINST OFF-CAMPUS DORMS IMPOSED BY ST. JOHN'S U.

Queens Civic Congress finds dormitory units sited in this fashion and process adjacent to homes just unacceptable and inappropriate," said President Bearak at a Rally organized by Concerned Residents of Jamaica Estates. "The discussions on what zoning permits in a section of Jamaica Estates obscures the point; we expect more of an educational institution when it comes to the erection of dormitories off-campus. The construction in Jamaica Estates demonstrates a total lack of sensitivity and community by an entity acting more like a cutthroat business than an institution of higher learning. Queens Civic Congress stands with the Jamaica Estates Association and the community in working for an outcome that makes sense." Queens Civic Congress has supported Jamaica Estates and the community in this effort
